

August 2008

- Michael Matusik is no stranger to the residential property sector. He continues to provide great insight into the residential property market.
- Michael is Director of Matusik Property Insights, a company that is recognised as one of Queensland's leading research consultancies in the residential property sector.
- Matusik Property Insights have been engaged in the master planning, design, feasibility and positioning of residential property for many leading organisations and have helped around 400 new residential developments come to fruition, including Sanctuary Cove; Brookwater; North Lakes and Cutters Landing, to name just a few.